AA is a Fellowship of men and women who share their experience, strength and hope with each other, that they may solve their common problem and help others to recover from alcoholism.

The only requirement for AA membership is a desire to stop drinking, there are no dues or fees for AA membership; we are self-supporting through our own contributions. AA is not allied with any sect, denomination, politics, organization or institution, neither endorses nor opposes any causes. Our primary purpose is to stay sober and help other alcoholics to achieve sobriety.

Sponsored by AA Berlin Intergroup

11:00-12:00 FAITH

Faith and its sharing with others is our greatest responsibility. May we of AA continually seek the wisdom and willingness by which we may well fulfill that immense trust which the Giver of all perfect gifts has placed in our hands.

As Bill sees it, p. 13

Speaker: Katharina/D

13:00 - 14:00 FEAR

When fear persisted, we knew it for what it was, and we became able to handle it. We began to see each adversity as a God-given opportunity to develop the kind of courage which is born of humility, rather than of bravado.

As Bill sees it, p. 91

Speaker: Petur/IS

15:00-16:00 HONESTY

Only by discussing ourselves, holding back nothing, only by being willing to take advice and accept direction could we set foot on the road to straight thinking, solid honesty, and genuine humility.

As Bill sees it, p. 248

Speaker: Tex/US

17:00-18:00 HUMILITY

We first reach for a little humility, knowing that we shall perish of alcoholism if we do not. Then comes the day when, finally freed in large degree from rebellion, we practise humility because we deeply want it as a way of life.

As Bill sees it, p. 211

Speaker: Robert/AUS

19:00-20:00 LOVE

Not many people can truthfully assert that they love everybody. Most of us must admit that we have loved but a few; that we have been quite indifferent to the many. As for the remainder - well, we have really disliked or hated them.
